NO. 55.

KIDD'S STORE.

Miss Blanch VanDeveer, of Stanford, is principal of Rifle Academy, our high school.

R. S. Bohn, of Decatur, Ill., was a flying visitor to our town, having stopped off to escort home his son, Cecil, who spent the summer with kinsfolk. After canvassing the popular educational institutions of the country it has been determined that there is no better place for our boys and girls than Stanford. May it ever be thus.

Thomas Raines, a minor, of Hartwell, and Miss Stella Mayes, sweet 16, of this place, surprised their parents and friends by slipping over the State line into Tennessee and obtaining marriage license. They refrained from taking into confidence even attendants and their plans evince veteran tactics.

Our censors of matters social, economic, religious and political, national and international, have finally reached a harmonious decision of the till last week paramount subject of Russo-Japanese war, and as soap boxes and nail kegs are shifted to assure benefit of best shade, the absorbing theme now is Henry McKinney's rumored disgust with celibacy reaching beyond the meridian of life, and his determination to risk uxorial possibilities. Henry's selection is commended and his temerity admired. The conventional charivari is assured if Madame Gossip touts the winner.

John Smiley is in the predicament of a noted biblical character whose farm products demanded additional store-houses. After building the best tobacco barn in the State in anticipation of an average crop of tobacco, he finds it imperative to provide almost a duplicate for his big yield. So of many other growers on a smaller scale. Farmers have been forced to construct series from which to locate the milk cows when browsing in thickets of colossal ragweeds which cover the pastures. If they chance to be ruminating at milking time search parties are deployed in absence of serviceable aeroplanes.

George Tucker and wife's periodical census of poultry disclosed distressing inroads, promising early extermination without relief. Aroused by a commotion in the henry they hurried to the scene, flushing a brace of men instead of the suspected marauder, and three charges of ineffectually small shot from a pump gun penetrated only deep enough to stimulate a speed which a champion sprinter might rival. Reaching their horses they dashed up the pike at a clatter which awoke sleepers and betrayed their course on taking a bypath, along which the trail was easily followed and the thieves identified. Learning that the sheriff was in pursuit they skipped, after directing a friend to their depot in the woods, with instructions to turn the chickens out of the coops, in which they were watered and fed till convenient to sell them to hucksters. Mr. T. was guided to the depot and recovered his property. The thieves have joined Kentucky's colony of fugitive felons under Indiana's mantle of condemnation and protection. A vote of thanks to Mr. Tucker for his services to poultry raisers of the vicinity are due, especially as he made the campaign in night shirt and barefoot.

The County Fair.

Three Jersey cows, a popcorn booth, a reaper and a planter, A 2:40 pace, ten patchwork quilts, a fakir with his banter, A six-legged calf, two special cops, 12 sheep just bred for mutton, The dining hall, a pony race, the prevalent photo button, A patent churn, red lemonade, a band in mixed regalia, A 100 teams, glad candidates, a solve for all that nits ye, A man who sells you county rights, some poultry that's in cages—The county fair is here again, and on all sides it rages.

Critically Ill.

Many people are critically ill, as a result of disturbance of their digestive functions, and don't know it. If you are suffering from dizziness, heartburn, wind, loss of appetite, irritability, headache, nausea, colic, constipation, waste no time, but take Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It may be the means of warding off a dangerous sickness. At any rate, it will surely make your distressing, dispeptic symptoms disappear. It is safe, certain and pleasant. Try it. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1 Money back if it fails.

L. B. Weisenburg, who several years ago left Frankfort, owing banks approximately $50,000, has settled with his creditors, and will return to Frankfort to live.

Samuel Horn, the 13th member of the family of Abraham Cripe, in Fulton county, Ind., to meet with a violent death, was killed while hauling logs.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

J. C. Higger, of Harrodsburg, in a fit of despondency committed suicide at Richmond.

Lee Doss, for assaulting R. H. C. Mitchell in Hays, was held in $500. He failed to give bond.

There was a hung jury in the case of Powell Carroll for the murder of John Fannon in Whitley county.

J. E. Houk has sold his interest in the stock of general merchandise of Houk & Adams to his partner, J. T. Adams. Mt. Vernon Signal.

Marvin H. Adams and W. Reed Embury have leased the Danville Opera House from Maj. E. W. Lillard for this season and will take charge immediately.

The Anderson county grand jury withdrew the indictment against William H. York for the murder of his brother, James R. York, and returned a joint indictment against William H. York and James Bass, alleging conspiracy. A special term of court will be called in October to try the case.

The home of the late William Stigall, near Perryville, was burned to the ground, together with nearly all of the contents. The fire originated from a defective flue. The loss will probably reach $3,500 with $1,000 insurance. A new building will be erected at once on the same site where the old one stood. Advocate.

HUSTONVILLE.

C. C. Carpenter is in Zion City for a month's stay.

Hustonville defeated Middleburg's ball team on Saturday 5 to 3.

I have for sale a good water mill, capacity 175 bushels corn, 75 bushels wheat per day, with dwelling, storehouse and land to suit purchaser. Price and terms right. Call in or address W. K. Williams.

Mrs. Charles Wheeler, of the Emporium, and Mrs. Naomi McCarty, of Mt. Salem, have gone to Cincinnati for the purchase of Fall and Winter goods for their respective houses. Mrs. Virginia Dowsley, of Harrodsburg, died Saturday and was buried Sunday at Danville.

Win. Dodd lost a fine 4-year-old Galton gelding last week at Danville by pneumonia. This was one of the most promising of the Galton family and was valued at $2,500. He was out of a Thornton mare, 2:00, and had made his mile in 2:14 and quarters in 30. Messrs. Dodd & Middleton feel the loss keenly.

HELP A CHILD TO FIND A HOME.

The Kentucky Children's Home Society has grown to be one of the greatest child saving agencies in America. The success of the work is due to the good people of our State who have opened their hearts and homes to the homeless, destitute children under our care. Sixty or 70 bright, sweet children are sent to us each month and it is necessary in order to provide for their neglected little ones to find good homes for the children now under our care. Have you a child in your home? If you have, do think you could take another little one to raise and rear into good citizenship? Will you not help us by giving a home or finding a home for a child of any age from infancy to girls and boys of 12 years of age? The Master said: "In as much as ye have done it to one of the least of these, ye have done it unto Me." If you are interested in the work, write for particulars to George L. Schon, State superintendent, Room 415, Masonic Building, Louisville, Ky.

Men Past 60 in Danger.

More than half of mankind over 40 years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for 20 years, although I am now 61 years old." Penny's Drug Store.

The man who is mean enough to give his baby sleeping powders in order that he might get a night's sleep is almost as mean as the man who takes his county paper and then refuses to pay for it when his subscription is due and says he does not want the paper any longer, says an exchange.

Dr. Finn's Testimony Interesting.

Dr. Thomas Finn, of Moonshoro, Mo., who has practiced medicine for 32 years, says he has used every prescription known to the profession for treatment of kidney and bladder diseases, and says he has never found anything so effective in both chronic and acute kidney and bladder trouble as Foley's Kidney Cure. It stops irregularities and builds up the whole system. Penny's Drug Store.

A Clear Complexion and Bright Eyes.

In most cases a sallow, blotched complexion and dull, heavy eyes are due to poor digestion and an inactive liver. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels and makes the complexion smooth and clear. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

J. W. IRELAND, M. A.,

Superintendent of the Stanford Graded School.

THE Graded School opened its doors yesterday morning with 210 pupils present, the largest first days' attendance in the history of the school. Prof. J. W. Ireland, the superintendent, and all of the teachers were on hand, ready to begin the year's work in earnest. The trustees, Dr. W. B. O'Hannon, Messrs. J. D. Ends, H. J. McRoberts, T. D. Raney and G. L. Penny, and a number of visitors honored the opening with their presence. Rev. Gilbert Glass, after reading a few passages of Scripture, offered a devout prayer, which was followed by entertaining talks by Supt. Garland Singleton, Dr. O'Hannon and Prof. Ireland. The opening exercises lasted about an hour and were enjoyable from start to finish. Prof. Ireland then made a brief address to the teachers and pupils and the scholastic year of 1905-06 began with a zest.

The faculty of the Graded School this year is as follows: Prof. J. W. Ireland, superintendent; R. J. McMullin, high school; Miss Annie Dunn, 7th and 8th grade; Miss Minnie Rupley, 5th and 6th grade; Miss Frances Adams, 4th grade; Mrs. H. D. Phillips, 3rd grade; Miss Annie McKinney, 2nd grade; Miss Georgia Lewis, 1st grade. Prof. Ireland is a graduate of Centre College and has taught four years; first in the Preparatory Department of Centre College and three years as superintendent of the Harrodsburg Graded School. Prof. McMullin, whose home is at Midway, is a graduate of Centre and is well equipped for his duties as teacher of the advanced students. The other teachers are well-known here, where they have very satisfactorily taught for several years.

Miss Ellen Hallow, who has charge of the music department, is a splendid teacher of several years' experience. Her success with the younger pupils is remarkable. Miss Charlotte Warren is at the head of the art department and is more than equal to the occasion.

Hard to Find.

It would be hard to find a more perfect, curative medicine for disordered digestive organs than that gentle tonic digestant and torpid liver regulator, known as Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. No other medicine has its specific power over these delicate and important organs of your body, upon which you have to depend for energy to carry on your daily work. It cleanses, digests, stimulates and cures. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

The tremendous crop of wheat in the West may be imagined when it is told that railroad men estimate that it would require a solid train 11,970 miles in length to transport the grain that will be marketed this year. Minnesota and the Dakotas will send at least 190,000,000 bushels of wheat to market out of a total crop of 326,000,000 bushels, and with the other grain and produce that will be hauled it will take 100 trains of 40 cars each every day in the year to clean up the work.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Penny's Drug Store.

Director of the Mint Robert's estimates an increase of $7,000,000 in gold production in 1904 over the previous year. He estimates the increase in silver at 3,486,000 fine grains.

All America

$3.50 AND $4 SHOES

Are shaped like a foot. All the seams are deeply buried in the leather; the thick, soft lining prevents uneven surface; the insole which is next to the foot, is soft and smooth, the stitches holding the bottom of the shoe together, can not become uneven ridges, because between them and the soft insole is a hard leather sole. The heels must always fit because the counter is curved at both top and bottom; the eyelets are covered on the inside with a soft leather strip. No matter how tight the shoes are laced, they can not pinch the feet. All America Shoes are good looking. They cost $3.50 and $4.00 because they could not be made better at a higher price.

THE following is M. Witte's private opinion publicly expressed of our versatile president: "From a moral standpoint, the president of the United States is a statesman of large calibre. Born in a time when politicians are more children of their century than of their history, he owes his high position, which he fills more worthily every day, exclusively to his personal qualities as revealed in actions requiring decision and clear vision. The world recognizes this. When one speaks with President Roosevelt, he charms through the elevation of his thoughts and through that transparent philosophy which permeates his judgment. He has an ideal and strives for higher aims than a commonplace existence presents. In the stubborn struggles of our day, men like Mr. Roosevelt have no leisure, for they are soldiers who cannot be relieved from the danger line."

THE Danville News is the worst quitter in the business. Instead of hitting back in a controversy which it began, and which we were really enjoying, the "yellow" of that paper is shown in the following feeble and nonsensical response: "Some people are so warped of soul and narrow of mind, that they can easily look straight through the eye of a needle without squinting. With such it is a waste of time to bandy words, so we consign the editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL to the guardianship of his elder brother of whom he is so proud: trusting that his paucity of knowledge concerning the location of the educational institutions of this country may yet be relieved by a more intimate personal acquaintance. It is never too late to do good."

THE amount of money per capita in circulation is larger now than in the history of the country. It is $31.40 per head, and if you haven't yours it is your fault. Because of the outpour of gold, money is also becoming cheap, and the thing for which money is exchanged relatively dear. One of the vagaries of the present monetary situation is the demand at the Federal Treasury for silver dollars. The Southern planters want these dollars to pay their Negro cotton pickers, who find more substantial and joyful remuneration in metallic money and plenty of it than in paper currency, which has not appreciable weight nor responsive jingle.

THE dying embers of hate, engendered by the civil war are nearly burned out, as is evidenced by striking instances of frequent occurrences. The ex-Confederates of Georgia have just extended an invitation to the Grand Army of the Republic to hold their next annual encampment at Atlanta. A wonderful change indeed have 40-odd years brought, when the "Yankee Army" went "marching through Georgia" before it did so without invitation and with considerable resistance offered.

EDITOR LANDRAM, of the Lancaster Record, has placed us under additional obligations for courtesies extended. For general cleverness he is in a class all by himself.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER fears a period of hard times and industrial depression in 1907-8, following over-production in all lines. If John D. is in fear of a panic, the rest of us ought to be scared almost to death.

MATRIMONIAL.

Miss Louise Park, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Park, of Middlesboro, and Mr. Henry Terrell, of Columbus, Miss., will be married Oct. 11.

The item in our last issue that Mr. Ollie Fields and Miss Anderson would marry September 16th, was untrue. We were imposed on by some smart Alec, who forged Mr. W. H. Martin's name to a letter telling of the approaching nuptials and asking that it be published. The writer may yet find that the fun was not so funny after all.

John Gosser has been appointed postmaster at Duly, Russell county.

The conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Covington passed a resolution calling on candidates for the ministry to state to what extent they use tobacco. Bishop Candler suggested that there was nothing in the church's doctrine against the use of tobacco.

The following appeared in the Table of correspondence of the Harrodsburg Herald: Rev. Mason, of Lincoln county, preached 11 sermons at Bethel, just a week before the Association at Glen's Creek. Some people think he is far ahead of any preacher they ever heard. We think he is a good Christian man and does well considering his opportunities. But as the old darkey told his master when he preached to him alone and asked him what he thought of his sermon, he said, "Well boss I have heard better." If Lincoln county has such a preacher we have not formed his acquaintance or even heard of him. Must be a mistake somewhere.

Escaped Death.

It is not an uncommon experience for us to get a letter describing how the writer escaped death by taking Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin for some violent and dangerous stomach or bowel inflammation. The gentle, soothing, curative, purificative action of this pleasant syrup is without any equal in the science of medicine. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. ## Up Against the Real Thing.

Such can be said of the task we are now engaged in and that is buying new Fall and Winter goods. Not that which looks like work, but real head work and physical labor. To buy the right kind is to select from the great mass of goods merchandise offered, that which will meet the wants of our trade. To walk around the poor styles and bad qualities and select the good is no easy task. But with our experience in buying we believe we can select those goods which will give satisfaction. We offer you as evidence of our ability to do this what this store has done in the past.

Any way Stephens had an eye shot out and was otherwise badly wounded. Saylor vehemently denies any knowledge of the crime.

HARDIN.—Mr. Samuel Hardin, aged 82, died at his home at Crab Orchard Friday evening and was buried at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after services by Eld. J. G. Livingston. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Laura Hardin, his wife having died a number of years ago. Mr. Hardin's death removes one of the landmarks of his town, as well as one of its very best citizens. He was a straightforward, honorable man, admired by all classes because of his sterling worth and he will be sadly missed in the community where he has helped many a person in distress. He had been in feeble condition for a number of years, but not too ill to look after his little store, which he ran more for pastime than for profit. Mr. Hardin was a brother of Mr. M. D. Hardin, of this place, who is 95 years old. Another brother, Mr. Timothy Hardin, died in the West End, aged 88, a few years ago. They were probably the three oldest brothers in this section of the State and only the eldest now remains. Mr. Sam Hardin was a great admirer of Col. W. G. Welch, also deceased. The writer remembers during the colonel's illness how interestedly Mr. Hardin asked about him when he was at Crab Orchard on one occasion and a little conversation that followed. Said Mr. Hardin: "Welch is the best friend I have on earth and had I only one dollar in this world I would cheerfully give it to him if he needed it or if it would relieve his suffering even for an hour while." Tears came into the good old gentleman's eyes as he turned away with head hung down.

FATALLY BURNED.—While lighting a gasoline lamp in his store about 5 o'clock Saturday evening, Mr. James T. Jones, the well-known restauranter, was fatally burned by the explosion of the lamp. The supposition is that he had put in too much pressure, and the lamp, which was not in good repair, gave way just as the blaze was applied. An instant after the explosion, Mr. Jones was a mass of flames and in his excitement he ran out in the street, which only fanned the flames. The sight was such a horrible one that bystanders were panic stricken for a few seconds and their delay in lending a helping hand caused Mr. Jones to be almost parched from the waist up. Such headway had the fire gotten that it was necessary to turn the hose on the unfortunate man before the blaze could be extinguished. After this was done Mr. Jones was taken to his room over his store, where Drs. Carpenter, Reid and O'Hannon attended him and at once put him under the influence of opiates in order to relieve his terrific sufferings. They had little hope of his recovery from the start and so told the members of his family. At about 8 o'clock he became partially conscious and talked to his wife and children, but his pains were so intense that it was necessary to give him more opiates. At 5 o'clock Sunday morning he sank into unconsciousness, his lower limbs began to get cold and just before the clock struck 1, his spirit took its flight. The burial took place at noon yesterday at McKinney, after services by Rev. L. M. Omer. Mr. Jones was a Maccabee and an Odd Fellow in good standing and was buried under the auspices of the latter order. He leaves a wife and four little children, who have great sympathy in their terrible loss. He was a kind and indulgent husband and father and it is indeed a pity that he should have been snatched so suddenly from his loved ones. Mr. Jones was a son of Mr. L. R. Jones, of the West End, and was about 40 years old. He was a tinner and plumber by trade, but launched into the restaurant business several years ago. The clothing of Charles Holman, who was clerking for Mr. Jones, caught fire from the explosion but he extinguished the flames before he was damaged.
